Opt for Joyroom's proposal and enjoy the combination of style and functionality. The Dancing Circle case supports the MagSafe function, and thanks to high-end crystals it looks exceptionally elegant. Quality materials have been used for its construction, which are durable and provide protection for the iPhone 14 Pro Max. The practical ring can also be used as a stand.

Striking crystals

The unique combination of densely placed premium crystals together with the used gradient technology and engraving technology creates a stunning effect that will delight any jewelry lover. With the Joyroom Dancing Circle case your phone will always look fantastic!

Attention to detail

Faux Sheepskin material, which resembles sheepskin, was used in the production process of the case. As a result, the product is pleasant to the touch and durable. A molding technology was also used, which provided stunning visual results. Soft silicone padding and a metal frame provide reliable protection for the device.

MagSafe support

The Joyroom Dancing Circle case supports the MagSafe function and comes with a practical ring that can serve as a handle. This allows you to use MagSafe chargers and accessories, and you can comfortably watch movies or make video calls without having to hold the device in your hand.
